

CITIZENS SCENARIOS

Alex finishes a snack and throws the wrapper on the ground instead of using a trash can.

Discussion Questions: Is this being a good citizen? How does littering affect the community?

Ethan sees a shocking news story online and shares it without checking if it's true.

Discussion Questions: How can sharing false information affect a community? What should a responsible citizen do instead?

Mia and her friends cut to the front of the lunch line because they don't want to wait.

Discussion Questions: Why are rules like waiting in line important? How does this affect fairness?

Alessa is in a hurry and crosses the street even though the "Don't Walk" sign is on.

Discussion Questions: Why do we have traffic laws? How do small actions impact a community's safety?

David finds a wallet on the sidewalk with money inside. Instead of keeping it, he turns it in to the school office.

Discussion Questions: Why is honesty an important trait of a good citizen?

When Riley sees a classmate being bullied, she tells a teacher and checks on the student afterward.

Discussion Questions: Should good citizens speak up when something is wrong? What else could Riley do?

Chris carves his name into a desk because he think it looks cool.

Discussion Questions: Why is it important to take care of shared spaces? Who does this behavior impact?

Sofia learns her town's public park is closing due to budget cuts. She starts a petition to keep it open.

Discussion Questions: How can citizens make a difference in their communities?

