

Does the Threat of Terrorism Justify Increased Surveillance?

Claim A	Issue on the Table	Claim B
Summarize this argument in one sentence, using your own words:	Does the threat of terrorist activity justify the increase in surveillance in the post-9/11 world, or does such surveillance unduly infringe upon individual civil liberties?	Summarize this argument in one sentence, using your own words:
Select and record the sentence(s) that best demonstrates the historian's argument:	Compare the two arguments. To what extent do these claims support or oppose each other?	Select and record the sentence(s) that best demonstrates the historian's argument:

Questions:

1. Which argument do you find more convincing? Explain what evidence led you to this point of view.
2. List at least two primary sources that would provide additional context to help you evaluate the arguments presented in this point-counterpoint.
3. Explain how this debate highlights the impact 9/11 had on domestic security and civil liberties in the United States.