

Graphic Organizer

Domestic and International Views of the Civil War

Guiding Question

- What were the major turning points and events of the Civil War?

Objective

- ☐ I can assess differing viewpoints of the Civil War through analyzing primary sources.

Directions: Fill out the graphic organizer as you read each primary source.

Name of Source	Does it depict support or opposition for the Union during the Civil War?	What impact could this have on the war? Explain.
Scott's Great Snake, 1861	It depicts support for the blockade and stopping Confederate trade.	This publication could have increased public support for the war if it were shown to the general public.
Address to President Abraham Lincoln by The Working-Men of Manchester, England, 1862
"The Surrender of Traitors," 1862
On the War and Its Conduct, 1863		