

Courage

The ability to take constructive action in the face of fear or danger. To stand firm as a person of character and do what is right, especially when it is unpopular or puts one at risk.

Liberty

The power to think and act as one sees fit without restraint except by the laws of nature and interfering with someone else's rights.

Revolution

A time when one government is being overthrown,
and another is being formed

Militia

A military group made up of citizens.

Colonist

A person who lived in the North American Colonies ruled by Britain.

Fort

A strong building that holds a permanent army post.

Siege

A method of battle where a place is surrounded to prevent resources from getting in.

Retreat

The act of moving back or withdrawing.

Surrender

To stop resisting an opponent.

Circa or ca.

A word for approximate time.

